

January 2012

Interested in an Internship Experience in the State of Oregon's Japan Representative Office?

Wanted: Internship Students:

Internship students are now being recruited. This is an opportunity for participation in a practical work experience at the State of Oregon Japan Representative Office.

The job description includes conducting market research dealing with the development of bilateral investment, trade and tourism promotions between Oregon and Japan, drafting the contents of an updated Japanese-language website, participating in a travel/tourism trade show, and other duties.

Qualification Requirements: 4-year college/university students
(graduate students accepted)

Term: Negotiable

Work Location: State of Oregon Japan Representative Office
Luis Bldg. 4F
2-16-1, Higashi-Shimbashi, Minato-ku, Tokyo
URL: <http://www.oregonjapan.org/>

Pay Scale: No salary.
Local transport expenses (cost reimbursement up to ¥1,600 daily)
Meal allowance of ¥1,000 daily (for six hours of practical work)

Work Hours: A. (09:00 - 12:00) half a day or three hours
B. (13:00 - 16:00) half a day or three hours
C. (09:00 - 16:00) full day or six hours (with an hour break)

Applications: Applicants are advised to send a resume with a statement of purpose written in English, as well as Japanese, by e-mail to: jrohori@gol.com or via facsimile at 03-6430-0775.

We look forward to soon receiving many applications from students or recommendations from schools.

Jun Mokudai
Director,
State of Oregon Japan Representative Office